

Functions

- In this activity, you will write a function to compute the arithmetic mean (average) for a list of numbers.

Instructions

- Write a function called average that accepts a list of numbers.
 - The function average should return the arithmetic mean (average) for a list of numbers.
 - Test your function by calling it with different values and printing the results.
-

Hints

- Arithmetic Mean \(Average\)