Basic Variables

Instructions

- Create two different variables that will take the input of your first name and your neighbor's first name.

- Create two more inputs that will ask how many months each of you has been coding.

- Finally, display a result with both your names and the total amount of months coding.